Re: Declarations to Parliament

Dear Mr Harris

I would like to inform the Parliament that I travelled to Chennai, India, as a representative of my region and as a member of the Government to speak at the inaugural World Tamils Economic Conference and at the Pravasi Bharatya Divas Conference of the Indian Diaspora.

I travelled to both these conferences between the dates of 5 January to 10 January.

Dr V.R.S. Sampath President of the Madras Development Society who is the organiser of the conference sponsored my travel and accommodation.

If there is any further information you require please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Re: Declarations to Parliament

Dear Mr Harris

I would like to inform the Parliament that my wife and I have sold our family home at 17 Karen Street Camira Q4300 and have now settled with the bank in terms of the mortgage over the house.

As I have previously declared we purchased a residential block of land in Springfield Lakes Q4300 intended as our future place of residence. Until that time we will be in rented accommodation within the electorate.

As a consequence of the sale of our home we no longer retain a mortgage over the land at Springfield Lakes.

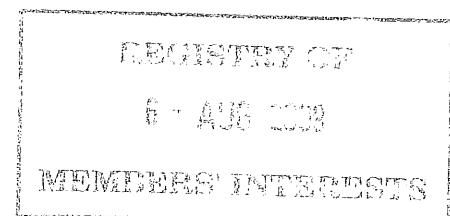

We do currently have and will continue a loan with the St George Bank for the construction of a house.

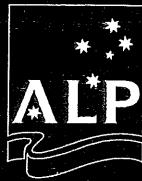

If there is any further information you require please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Yours sincerely

Re: Declarations to Parliament

Dear Mr Harris

I would like to inform the Parliament that Group Four Solutions Pty Ltd ceased to exist almost immediately after its inception due to the changed circumstances of one of its directors.

Group Four Solutions Pty Ltd did not trade and the name was retained for other purposes by one of the other directors.

My wife and/ or myself have no ongoing interest in Group For Solutions Pty Ltd or any other related entity to that name.

If there is any further information you require please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Re: Declarations to Parliament

Dear Mr Wright

I would like to inform the Parliament that I was the guest speaker at a number of ING Pty Ltd professional development forums.

These five forums took place during September 2009 in Perth, Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne, and Adelaide.

ING sponsored my travel, accommodation and expenses as well as providing a speaking fee.

I made a personal decision not to accept payment for my time and as such directed the fee to be paid to a number of charities with the payments to the charities having been made in the past fortnight.

In speaking at these forums I derived no monetary benefit or gain.

If there is any further information you require please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Re: Declarations to Parliament

Dear Mr Wright

I would like to inform the Parliament of an upgraded ticket by Qantas Airways from a business class ticket on my study leave visit to the Boao Conference in China during April 2010.

I also inform the Parliament that on the return trip through Hong Kong I stayed on for two nights. This was privately funded by myself and incurred no additional expense to the commonwealth.

If there is any further information you require please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Yours sincerely
